I bought this Tractor several months ago and now the hydraulics need some more fluid. Im not Sure where to fill from. Anybody out there help me. I dont have a manual. There is a port behind the seat with a black plastic cap going into the case that the two arms of the three point hitch come out of but I didnt know if that was for gear oil or possibly the hydraulic fluid I really suggest you pick up the Operators Manual as there are a number of routine maintenance items that should be checked regularly, it will save you thousands in repair costs. I left home about 40 years ago and havent had much of any tractor experience since then. Our tractors were old then. A Farmall M, 400 and a John Deere 3020. They have change things a lot since then.
